

The VW Crafter becomes more digital

Volkswagen Commercial Vehicles is giving the Crafter an extensive software and hardware update. The cockpit has been completely overhauled and now has a digital instrument display, a multifunction steering wheel, an electronic parking brake and various assistance systems. The infotainment system will be brought up to date and will have Chat-GPT as a voice assistant. Pre-sales of the new VW Crafter start in mid-April. (aum)
